

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CATCH THE ACTION AT THE SINGAPORE FLOORBALL CUP

25 OCTOBER 2011 – The floorball calendar continues to be action-packed as the Singapore Floorball Cup 2011 commenced yesterday at the Republic Polytechnic Sports Complex. The tournament runs until 13 November 2011 (Sun) when the Men and Ladies finals will be played at the Yio Chu Kang Sports Hall.

The Singapore Floorball Cup 2011 will see a mix of teams from the Singapore Floorball League (SFL) 2011 Premiership and Championship playing for the coveted Singapore Floorball Cup title. The single knockout competition commenced on 15 October (Sat) with 6 out of 11 Ladies teams playing in the first round of matches. The other 5 teams will proceed to the quarter-finals directly based on their seeding in the SFL 2011 Premiership league.

The first round of matches held on 15 October (Sat) for the Ladies Cup saw Skools Youth, Pink Flamingoes and Aresian FC proceed to the quarter-finals.

The quarter-finals of the Men's Cup will commence on 23 October (Sun) with 8 teams also playing in a single knockout competition.

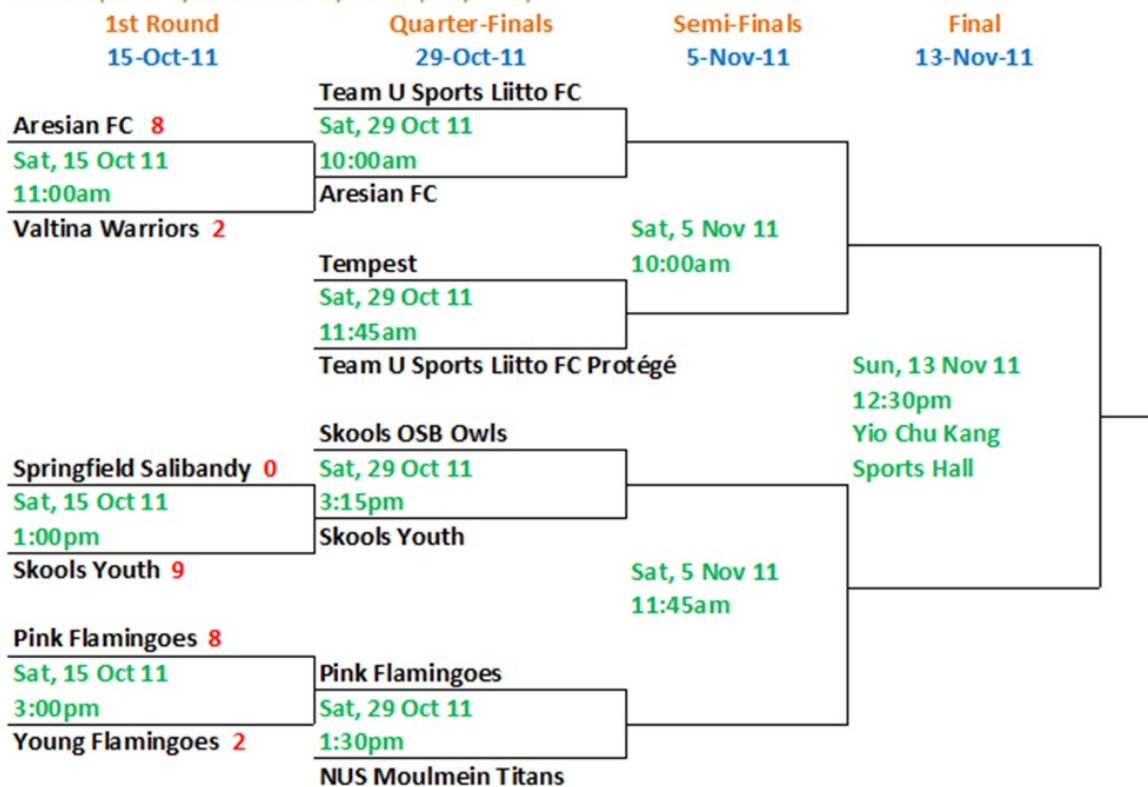

Admission is free for all matches held at the Republic Polytechnic Sports Complex, as well as the finals that will be played in Yio Chu Kang Sports Hall on 13 November (Sun).

About the Singapore Floorball Association

The Singapore Floorball Association (SFA) was formed in 1995 to promote and grow local participation in Floorball. Its vision is to drive Floorball to become the Top 5 most popular sport among youths locally and make Singapore the leading Floorball nation in the Asia Oceania region. SFA aims to provide the best opportunities for Singaporeans of all ages to play Floorball, in particular, developing youth development and coaching programmes to reach out to young players. On a regional level, SFA actively supports activities that promote and develop participation in Floorball among the South East Asian countries.

The popularity of the sport has grown exponentially over the last four years, with over 3,000 primary, secondary and JC students participating annually in the National Schools Tournaments. There are more than 1,500 registered players with SFA playing in the Singapore Floorball Leagues.
